

COURSE DETAILS

Title	Korean Language (Beginner to Intermediate)
Field of Study	Communication, Humanities Korean language, Korean studies, Media, Social science
Type	Academic course
Credits/ECTS value	1~3/3~6
Contact hours	16hrs(1 credit) ~ max 45hrs(3 credit)
Schedule	Monday ~ Thursday 13:30 – 14:30 or 13:30 – 16:30 Field Trips 15 th , 17 th & 29 th
Course level	Bachelor
Teachers Information	To be updated
Course Description	This course is designed for students who have no or very limited knowledge of Korean language. Starting with a quick introduction to Korean alphabet, this course will help students communicate in Korean in various real life situations, using the very basic words and grammar.
Learning Objective	The course emphasizes the development of basic communication skills through intensive exercise and practice of sample patterns of dialogue and basic grammar. The focus is on casual and practical speaking, as well as on Korean alphabet, pronunciation and basic sentence structures for beginner's level.
Additional Information	If course enrollment is less than 15 students, this course will be cancelled
Prerequisites	There are no prior courses required, as this class was designed to be teach from very beginner. However for intermediate class there will be level test

Course Topics	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Course Introduction Korean Alphabet 1, Greeting people 2. Korean Alphabet 2 & 3, Introducing oneself 3. Korean Alphabet 4 & 5, Occupation & nationality 4. Name of objects: "What is this?", "Do you have ...?" 5. Location: "Where is ...?" 6. Numbers: Ask prices 7. Action verbs: Talk about everyday life 8. Ordering: Order food in Korean 9. Adjectives: Talk about your feelings 10. Evaluation / Korean buzzword
Evaluation Pass/ Non-pass	Participation/field trip/workshops attendance 80% Final exam or paper reports 20%