VII. ACCEPTED STUDENTS

All accepted students for KU Exchange / Visiting Student Program:

- Will receive an email containing information necessary to apply for their study visas and arrive at KU.
- Must apply for a D-2-6 or D-2-8 visa at the nearest Korean Embassy or Korean Consulate General in your home country. Exchange students must apply for a D-2-6 visa, and visiting students must apply for a D-2-8 visa. You cannot apply for your visa after arriving in Korea!

[IMPORTANT]

- The D-2 visa is for students seeking higher education in Korea. The visa is further categorized by type: D-2-2 for undergraduate programs, D-2-3 for master's programs, D-2-4 for doctoral programs, D-2-6 for exchange student programs, and D-2-8 for short-term programs.
- It is extremely important to prepare all relevant documents for the specific type of visa you are applying for.
- The application process and issuance may take several weeks to a month. Students are strongly advised to proceed with their application as early as possible.
- KU does not guarantee visa issuance for program participants. Korean embassies or consulate generals overseas have the final authority to issue a visa.
- Please contact the nearest Korean embassy or consulate general in advance to avoid any confusion before applying for your visa.

C. Have to arrange flights to Seoul, Republic of Korea.

[NOTES]

- Students should book their flights after receiving the acceptance email from KU. They should pay for the flights upon receiving the visa.
- Starting from 1 April 2020, the Korean government has implemented mandatory self-quarantine to all entrants to Korea. Several quarantining options exist (government-designated quarantine hotels, Airbnb, etc.) and the cost can range from USD 1,000~2,000 for the 7-day self-quarantine including meals.
- In order to be able to attend the welcome orientation planned for 23rd August, you must enter Korea NO LATER THAN 15th August in order to fulfil the conditions for mandatory quarantine and be able to start your activities beginning on 23rd August.
- Due to the uncertainty resulting from the COVID-19, please purchase flight tickets that can be cancelled or easily changed.
- All dormitory applicants must arrange their arrival according to the check-in period. They should arrive during daytime.

D. Have to submit the Arrival Information Form before departing their home country.

[NOTES]

- All students will receive the 'Arrival Information Form' by email and must submit the form with their confirmed flight schedule by 23rd July 2022.
- The form will be used for the welcome orientation, dormitory check-in, and other programs offering assistance on the first day of arrival.²³
- KU does not offer airport pick-up. Students must arrange their transportation from the airport to Konkuk by themselves. KU will send out transportation-related information in January.

E. Have to purchase health insurance which covers the duration of the program.

[NOTES]

- Students must purchase overseas health insurance in their home country prior to departure.
- Starting from March 1, 2021, incoming D-2 visa holders are required to subscribe to the National Health Insurance (approximately KRW 50,000 a month). The subscription will be processed uniformly by the National Health Insurance Service (NHIS) on your foreign registration date without any separate reporting procedure.
